

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Division of Finance
Substitute Form W-9
REQUEST FOR TAXPAYER
IDENTIFICATION NUMBER AND CERTIFICATION

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to give your correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA. The IRS will use the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, and the District of Columbia to carry out their tax laws. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 31% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

CERTIFICATION

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The information provided on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge (or I am waiting for a TIN to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to back-up withholding because: (a) I am exempt from back-up withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to back-up withholding as a result of failure to report all interest and dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to back-up withholding.

The Internal Revenue Services does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
